

SHORT BIO IMPACT COMMITTEE MEMBER

Olivia Macharis
G4 VPK Group

Previously employed by the Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue (HD), Olivia coordinated mediation programming on Syria and North Africa, working to de-escalate regional tensions and support conflict resolution. At present, Olivia is working as an independent consultant working to advance innovative approaches within the peace-making sector. Through her work, Olivia is exploring how international institutions and impact actors can support peace in fragile contexts. In addition, Olivia is studying the linkages between climate change and conflict, developing context-specific programmes to mediate collaborative and sustainable approaches for the management of natural resources.

Olivia holds a MSc degree in Negotiation for International Organizations from IESEG School of Management, and a MSc in Business Economics from KU Leuven.
